

Inspirational Woman Project

Name _____ Class _____

Teach about an inspirational woman

- Facts are well researched, true, written in full sentences with proper spelling, punctuation, etc.
- The project stays on task -- which is teaching about your inspirational woman.
- There are many interesting facts that go beyond just their birthday and most well known accomplishments.

Creativity

- You have a thoughtful, creative, unique project.
- If sound is used, it enhances the project -- it doesn't take away from it.
- Bonus points for creating your own sprites and backdrops.
 - If you upload images, they look good. They are not stretched out or fuzzy.

Scripts

- Scripts are well done and work properly.
- You should understand your scripts.

Design Process

- You did your research and cited your sources.
- You planned your project on paper first.
- You debugged any problems and have a working project.
- It's clear you reflected on your project and improved it based on peer feedback.
